

COMMUNICATION 2025.16

26-06-2025

Figure Skating Level tests 2025-2026 Component Level Tests 2025-2026

Changes compared to season 2024-2025 are underlined

FIGURE SKATING LEVEL TESTS

Starting July 1st 2025, the following minimum Technical Element Scores (TES) for the different levels need to be obtained :
(including bonus points)

TES Miniemen level – Girls and Boys*	6.00 points
TES Basic Novice level – Girls and Boys	8.50 points
TES Intermediate Novice level – Girls and Boys	12.00 points
TES Advanced Novice level Girls and boys	16.50 points
TES Junior level – Women	22.50 points
TES Junior level – Men	24.50 points
TES Senior level – Women	36.00 points
TES Senior level – Men	40.00 points
TES Master level – Women	42.00 points
TES Master level – Men	50.00 points

PCS LEVEL TESTS

Starting July 1st 2025, the following minimum Program Component Scores (PCS) for the different levels need to be obtained :

PCS Miniemen – Girls and Boys	N/A
PCS Basic Novice level – Girls and Boys	12.00 points
PCS Intermediate Novice level - Girls	14.00 points
PCS Intermediate Novice level - Boys	15.00 points
PCS Advanced novice level - Girls	17.00 points
PCS Advanced novice level - Boys	20.00 points
PCS Junior level – Women	25.00 points
PCS Junior level – Men	29.00 points
PCS Senior – Women	35.00 points
PCS Senior – Men	39.00 points
PCS Master – Women	45.00 points
PCS Master – Men	52.00 points

These scores can be obtained at :

- Belgian National and International Interclub Competitions and Championships ;
- Foreign International Interclub competitions ;
- ISU listed competitions ;
- Foreign International Interclub Competitions linked to an ISU Listed Competition.

(See National Regulations for participation requirements for these different competitions)